

Narration #1

(He Comes Again)

Amy Webb

Easter is that sacred season when the heart of each devout Christian turns in humble gratitude to our beloved Savior. It is a season that should bring peace and joy to all who love Him and show it by obeying His commandments.

Easter brings thoughts of Jesus, His life, His Atonement, His Resurrection, His love.

For four thousand long years - from the day Adam was cast out of Eden to the day John baptized at Bethabara - all of the prophets and all of the Saints looked forward to the coming of the Messiah.

They talked and taught of Christ;

22 24

they preached and prophesied of Christ; they centered their lives and all of their hopes in the promise of his coming. They knew that as God's Musical notation for measures 22-24, including treble and bass staves.

26

Son he would work out the infinite and eternal atonement, that immortality and eternal life would come by him.

Musical notation for measures 25-27, including treble and bass staves.

28 30

As the day of His mortal birth approached, Nephi heard the voice saying, "Lift up your head and be of good cheer;

Musical notation for measures 28-31, including treble and bass staves.

32 34

for behold, on the morrow come I into the world." "Thus, on the next day in Bethlehem of Judea, a tiny babe lay in a manger while an attentive

Musical notation for measures 32-35, including treble and bass staves.

36 38

gloried in the presence of her newborn son, the Only Begotten of the Father in the flesh, a God come to earth.

Musical notation for measures 36-39, including treble and bass staves.