

Honored by Strangers, Rejected by His Own

(SATB)

Words and Music by Amy Webb

Having been rejected by His own Jesus departed from the unbelieving Nazarenes, and thenceforth, Nazareth was no longer, His home.

2 4

6 8

mp
Women: 1.To the Men: 2.To the 8

wo - man of Sa ma - ri - a, He spoke won - drous things. He fa - ther of Ca per - naum, His pow - er was clear. His 10 12

12

NB 14 16

taught of liv - ing was wa - ters and as taught how she could ne-ver thirst. mp She end-less grace ev - i - dent and as He per-formed a mir-a cle. mf The 18 20 ALL:

plead - ed for this wa - ter, she plead - ed to hear more. mf She fa - ther's son was healed, she rose and hurt no more. His 22 24

told love all and a - round her ry to come and ga - ther 'round; to His glo - ry were felt by those He touched. And lis - ten to His teach - ings and with hear His sa - cred words. And He con - tin - ued heal - ing with bound - less char - i - ty.

26 28

30 32

as He left, they all pro - claimed: He is the One, the Sa - vior of the rit.

1.

34 36

world.

38 40

Men: 2.To the

2. 42 44

world.

46 48 Slower Women: Oo 50

mp
Men: 3.As He tra-veled to Na-za-reth, He

rit.

52 Oo 54 Oo How could He be God's once called His home. Jo-seph's son, a car-pen-ter, how could He be God's on-ly

56 Son? 58 molto rit. 60 a tempo

f Hon - ored by stran - gers, re - jec - ted by His own. mf His Son?

molto rit. mf a tempo

62 64

grace and His mir - a - cles, they did not un - der - stand. But the pow - er of the words they heard would calm their an - gry hands. And 70 72

66 68

as He left, He did pro - claim: I am the One, the Sa - vior

74 76

of the world. mp